BACKYARD THEATRE COMPANY PRESENTS THEIR CHRISTMAS SHOWCASE

The Backyard Theatre Company (BTC) students have been working hard all fall to prepare for their Christmas Showcase – so don't miss out! Come and celebrate the season creatively with BTC on Tuesday, December 10th, 6:30pm at the SRSS Theatre, 190 McKenzie Avenue. With a $2 admission, you will be hard-pressed to find a better bargain for an entertaining Christmas show! And don't forget to Bring a Tin for the Bin!

MEET OUR BACKYARD THEATRE COMPANY TEAM!

Artistic Director Jeremy Plett is an alumnus of the Backyard Theatre Company and has been Director for 7 years. Jeremy has travelled with the SBC Drama team across Canada to experience theatre. He was recently part of Candlewick's Production of The Princess Bride and was a star character – Tin Man in Steinbach's Community Musical The Wizard of Oz. Jeremy loves theatre and participates in many different theatre productions throughout the year. We are thrilled to have him as our Artistic Director.

Director Alan Fehr has been involved in writing, directing and producing all Real Live Entertainment theatre productions including "The Mousetrap" (2017) and their up-coming production of "Still Stands the House" (2020). He is thrilled to join the BTC team, where he and his students will be learning to express themselves, work collaboratively and explore performer's toolbox.

Backyard Theatre Company is a great way to build your confidence. Class options include:

Acting Out! Ages 5-8

The Actor's Studio Ages 10-12
